Dear Lenders:

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) is taking bold steps to eliminate fraud in the nationwide programs it funds. The Federal Housing Administration insures mortgages on single family homes, multifamily properties, residential care facilities and hospitals. Taxpayers deserve to see this program and participating lending institutions operate with integrity and especially without fraud.

The Office of Inspector General (OIG) is committed to eliminating fraud, waste, and abuse. When people act intentionally to defraud our programs, it erodes public trust and diverts critical resources away from communities and the individuals who depend on HUD for housing solutions. Eliminating fraud is a shared responsibility; we cannot do it alone. We need you to do your part.

Make reports of crime, fraud, waste, and abuse to OIG via our Hotline at <https://www.hudoig.gov/hotline> or call 1-800-347-3735. Additionally, we encourage you to use our anti-fraud resource graphics in your social media, newsletters, websites, and other communications. The resource graphics are available on our website at <https://www.hudoig.gov/resources/posters-and-brochures>

Please share this letter with all your staff and together we will eliminate fraud.

Sincerely,

---

Brian D. Harrison
Acting Inspector General
